Suomenlinnan Brewery's Höpken Pils is a golden yellow, pilsner-style lager. It's foam is white and the taste light and dry. Assertive hopping provides balanced bitterness and a soft finish.

Höpken is a beer named after a great man. Count Andreas Johan von Höpken was a significant Swedish politician and writer. Bastion Höpken was built on Suomenlinna already in 1750, and it is still a popular place for weddings.
